

Conference Registration Fee Schedule (US Dollars)

Full Registration includes: All technical sessions, all open subcommittee sessions and the Conference Record (provided as a download). Breakfasts, luncheons, and the Monday Night Social are also included for full registrants and their registered guest.

One Day Registration includes: Admittance to the selected days' paper presentations and luncheon. One Day Registration does not include a copy of the conference record, breakfast or admittance to the Monday PCIC Evening Social. ("Monday Only" registrants may purchase a ticket to this event at an additional cost on-line or at the registration desk). One day registrants may visit the hospitality suites on the day they are registered only.

Bound copies of the Conference Record are available for full-conference registrations received on or before August 21, 2022, at a price of $55 for both IEEE Members and Non-Members - order below. A limited number of bound copies of the Conference Record may be available at the conference for $70 each on a first-come first-serve basis.
